

Woozy the Wizard: A Broom to Go Zoom

by Elli Woollard

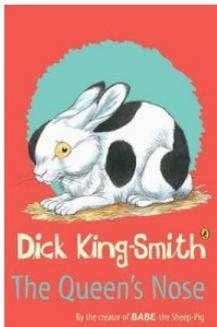

Brightly coloured pages, cheerful illustrations and funny rhythmic verse zip this story along, making it an ideal book to bridge the gap between picture books and older fiction.

The Galloping Ghost

by Hilda Offen

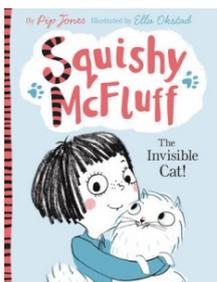

Perfect for emerging readers

The Queen's Nose

by Dick King-Smith

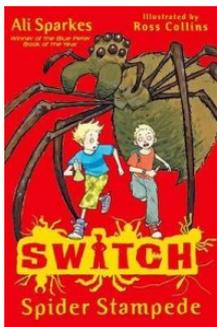

Harmony's Uncle Ginger sends her on a treasure trail - which ends in finding a 50p piece.

Squishy McFluff: the Invisible Cat!

by Pip Jones & Ella Okstad

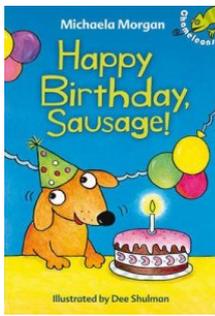

Squishy McFluff is Ava's best friend. He may be invisible, but that doesn't stop them having all kinds of fun together - and you won't believe just how much trouble one invisible kitten can cause!

S.W.I.T.C.H Spider Stampede

by Ali Sparkes

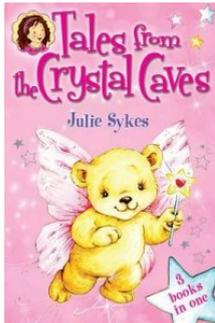

Follow Josh and Danny on their terrifying trail down the plughole...

Happy Birthday, Sausage!

by Michaela Morgan

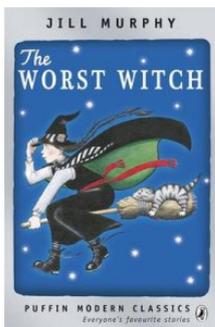

There are lots of delightful illustrations in this story for children who have just begun to read books with chapters

Tales from the Crystal Caves

by Julie Sykes

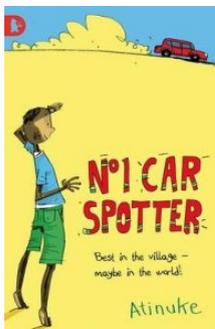

This exciting new book features three separate stories in which we meet the much loved Fairy Bears again

The Worst Witch

by Jill Murphy

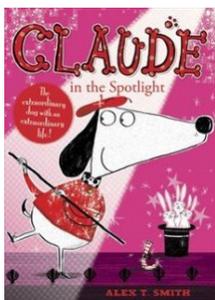

Long before Harry Potter first went to Hogwarts, trainee witch Mildred Hubble embarked on life at Miss Cackle's Academy for Witches...

No. 1 Car Spotter

by Atinuke

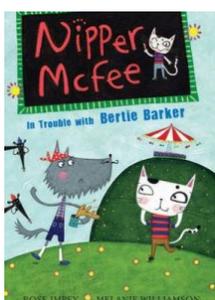

No. 1 comes to the rescue each and every time his family or the village are in trouble!

Claude in the Spotlight

by Alex T Smith

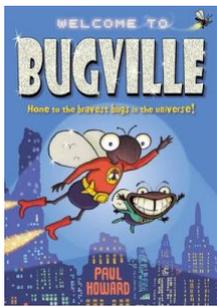

Alex T Smith's adorable Claude - a small plump dog in a stylish red sweater and beret - is back for a new adventure.

Nipper McFee: In Trouble with Bertie Barker

by Rose Impey

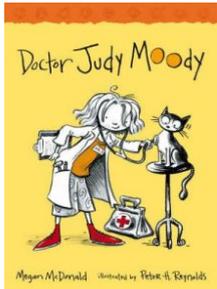

Part of a series of small-format early reading books illustrated in full colour which are ideal for newly fluent younger readers

Welcome to Bugville

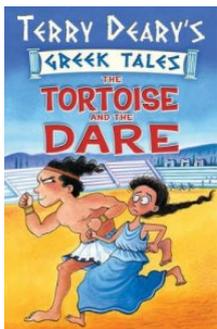

by Paul Howard

Welcome to Bugville, the thriving metropolis home of millions of bugs...

Doctor Judy Moody

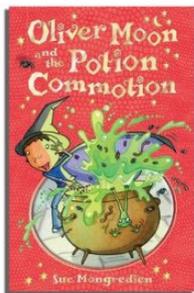

by Megan McDonald

The Tortoise and the Dare

by Terry Deary

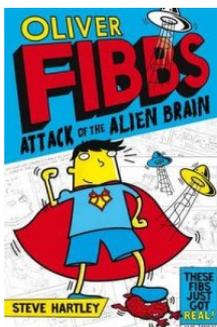

Have you ever staked your own sister in a bet? Well that's what happens to Ellie when her brother Cypselis has a dare with Big Bacchiad at school.

Oliver Moon and the Potion Commotion

by Sue Mongredien

Schools and magic are a winning combination, and Oliver Moon's adventures bring the genre to a younger readership via a tiny chapter-book.

Oliver Fibbs: Attack of the Alien Brain

by Steve Hartley

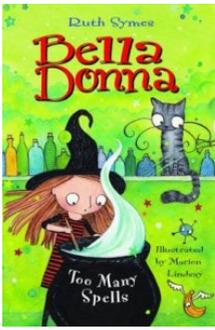

Oliver Tibbs has been rechristened 'Oliver Fibbs' by classmates because of his habit of telling whoppers in an attempt to appear more impressive.

Star Fighters: Alien Attack

by Max Chase

Meet Peri, Intergalactic Force Academy Star Fighter, defender of the Milky Way...

Bella Donna: Too Many Spells

by Ruth Symes

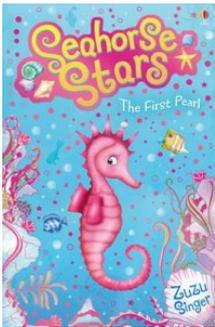

The second engaging episode in Bella Donna's life finds about to continue her studies as a witchling

A Walk in London

by Salvatore Rubbino

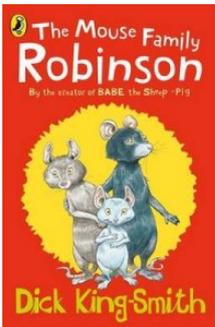

Full of fascinating facts about the city, this lovely companion to A Walk in New York is enhanced by Salvatore Rubbino's engaging retro illustrations and even includes an unfolding panorama of the Thames.

Seahorse Stars: The First Pearl

by Zuzu Singer

The first of a new early reader series set among the seahorse population of a coral reef

The Mouse Family Robinson

by Dick King-Smith

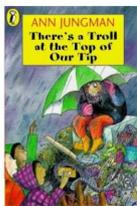

Old Mr Brown has had seventy-eight children. And with the Robinson's first babies on the way he advises them to name them following the letters of the alphabet.

Mercy Watson to the Rescue

by Kate DiCamillo

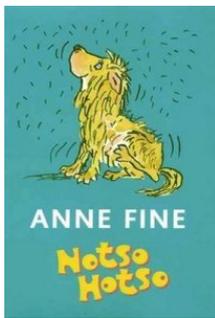

Mercy the pig loves the buttery-toasty feeling she gets when the Watsons sing to her at bedtime, but she doesn't like sleeping alone.

There's a Troll at the Top of Our Tip

by Ann Jungman

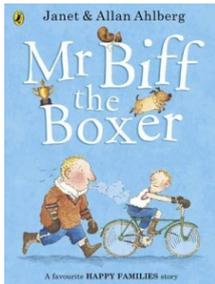

The third in a series of stories about a misunderstood troll and the group of children who befriend him.

Notso Hotso

by Anne Fine

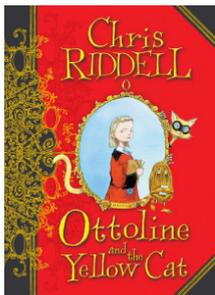

Anthony, a very vain dog, is horrified when his fur starts to fall out in clumps. On a humiliating trip to the vet, his body is shaved, leaving only the fur on his head and tip of his tail so that he resembles a lion.

Mr Biff the Boxer

by Allan Ahlberg

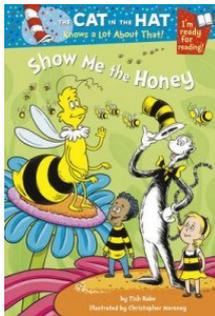

The Ahlbergs' funny and classic Happy Families story is now available in a larger format and is ideal for newly independent readers

Ottoline and the Yellow Cat

by Chris Riddell

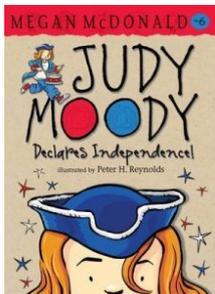

Ottoline is good at solving mysteries, in part due to her eavesdropping habit and in part because of her qualification as a mistress of disguise.

The Cat in the Hat Knows a Lot About That: Show Me The Honey

by Tish Rabe

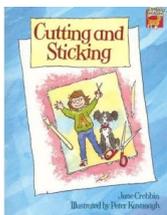

Includes easy and funny rhymes which children will love to read again and again

Judy Moody Declares Independence

by Megan McDonald

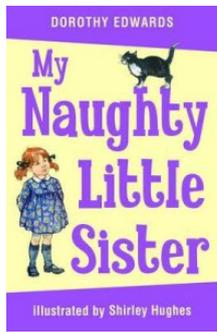

After visiting Boston and learning about the American Revolution, Judy Moody decides it's time for her to declare independence at home

Cutting and Sticking

by June Crebbin

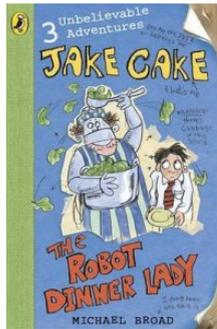

Dad is helping Jess to decorate her new bedroom. Younger sister Alice wants to help too, but when Dad tells her to go downstairs she feels a bit left out.

My Naughty Little Sister

by Dorothy Edwards

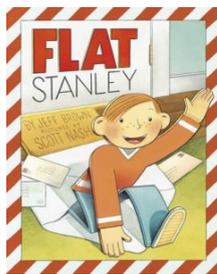

This affectionate portrait of family life is the story of a naughty three-year-old sister who is obstinate, inquisitive and full of mischief.

The Robot Dinner Lady

by Michael Broad

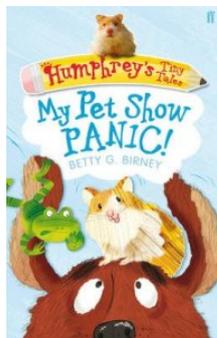

In these three short stories Jake tells his own incredible tales of the mayhem which follows when a normal boy investigates a variety of what seem to him to be unbelievable events.

Flat Stanley

by Jeff Brown

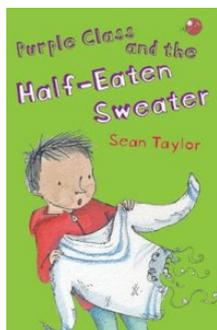

Stanley Lambchop wakes up one morning to find he is only half an inch thick

Humphrey's Tiny Tales: My Pet Show Panic

by Betty G Birney

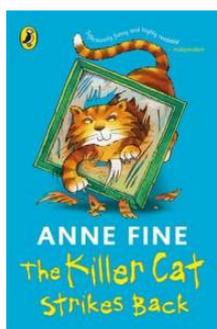

Animal lovers will enjoy every page of this very funny and charming story

Purple Class and the Half Eaten Sweater

by Sean Taylor

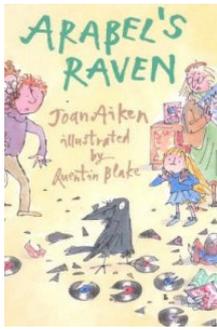

Full of witty dialogue and lively narrative

The Killer Cat Strikes Back

by Anne Fine

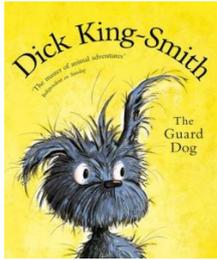

This is Tuffy's third adventure, in which he takes exception to Mum's art class, and ruins almost all of her new masterpieces.

Arabel's Raven

by Joan Aiken

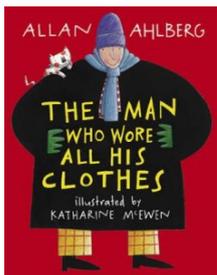

A new edition of a much-loved classic by the immensely popular Joan Aiken.

The Guard Dog

by Dick King-Smith

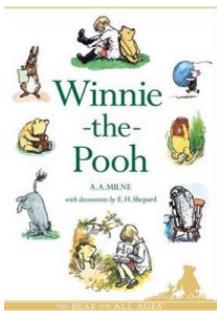

Join the little Guard Dog on his search to find a new home

The Man Who Wore All His Clothes

by Allan Ahlberg

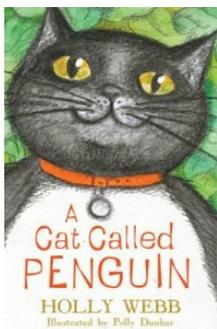

Mr Gaskitt works as Father Christmas in a department store, his wife is a taxi driver and Horace, their cat, loves spending much of his time watching sad old movies on TV.

Winnie-the-Pooh

by A A Milne

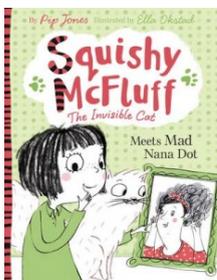

No child's library could be complete without A A Milne's stories about Pooh, Christopher Robin and their friends in the Hundred Acre Wood.

A Cat Called Penguin

by Holly Webb

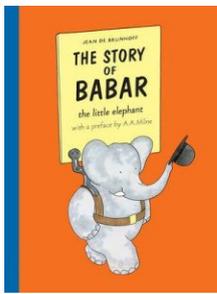

An entertaining story for fluent younger readers complemented by pen and ink illustrations

Squishy McFluff the Invisible Cat Meets Mad Nana Dot

by Pip Jones

This comical chapter book is ideal for early readers who are ready to move on from picture books.

The Story of Babar

by Jean De Brunhoff

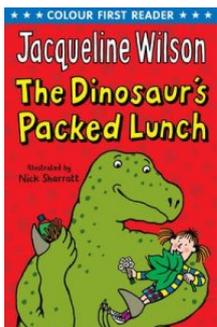

'In the great forest, a little elephant was born. His name was Babar...'

The Woman Who Won Things

by Allan Ahlberg

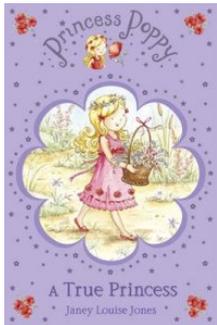

When Mrs Gaskitt hits a winning streak, she starts to receive prizes - large and small - non-stop, and begins to long for her old, less lucky self.

The Dinosaur's Packed Lunch

by Jacqueline Wilson

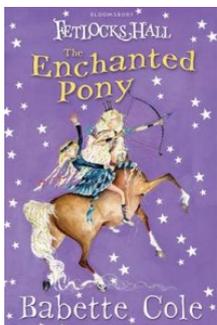

Dinah is having a bad day - nothing seems to be going right: so far she's made her Dad cross and argued with her best friend

Princess Poppy: A True Princess

by Janey Louise Jones

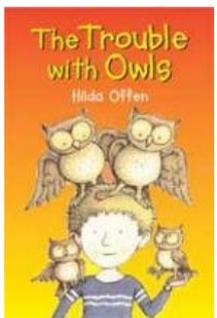

Poppy is fed up. Her best friend Honey is prettier, kinder and seems to have a much more exciting time than Poppy.

The Enchanted Pony

by Babette Cole

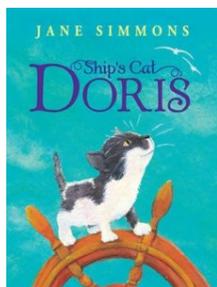

The story cleverly combines every young girl's favourite themes, magic and ponies, to create an exciting adventure

The Trouble with Owls

by Hilda Offen

The Howlett owl family love living in the Honeybell family's garden. Yet to the Honeybell family the Howletts are simply a nuisance and they call in the Owl Catcher.

Ship's Cat Doris

by Jane Simmons

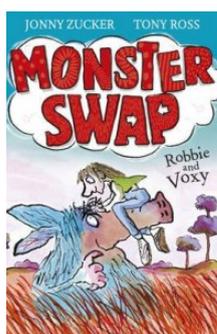

Meet a brilliant cast of animal characters in this charming Cornwall story of friendship and belonging

Dixie O'Day: In the Fast Lane

by Shirley Hughes

Mother and daughter Shirley Hughes and Clara Vulliamy have teamed up for the first time for this sweet story, the first in a series about canine driver Dixie O'Day and his friend, Percy.

Monster Swap: Robbie and Voxy

by Johnny Zucker

A lively, imaginative tale with lots of laughs